Daily Quote...

"Prodded by conservatives, President Bush and GOP leaders have said they are willing to offset those costs [related to Hurricanes Katrina and Rita] with spending cuts. But realistically, the political will does not exist to vote through the cuts that have been proposed, said House leadership aides and sources, who spoke on the condition of anonymity because of the sensitivity of the issue. Nor have Republican leaders given serious thought to reversing course on tax cuts, lawmakers said yesterday. 'I don't see any change in fiscal policy,' said Rep. Christopher Shays (R-Conn.), a former vice chairman of the Budget Committee."
